Vienna - Today, OMV and Gazprom have signed an "Amendment Agreement" to the "Basic Sale Agreement" dated October 3, 2018. The "Amendment Agreement" foresees, in particular, an extension of the negotiation phase for the final transaction documents on a non-exclusive basis until June 2022. In these negotiations, material developments and changed circumstances until signing thereof (including the planned start of production of Achimov 4A/5A) are to be taken into account by the parties in good faith, in particular in relation to the economic effective date and the purchase price.
